

Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Kelley are expected to arrive in Lincoln in a few days from Cincinnati where they have been visiting Mr. Kelly's parents.

Mr. and Mrs. C. G. Dawes have returned from a brief visit in Ohio.

Bert Wheeler, of Omaha, spent Sunday in this city.

Many Lincoln people will remember Clarence E. Brown, formerly of Omaha, who went to California about two years ago to become traveling passenger agent for the Union Pacific. THE COURIER learns that he has just been made district passenger agent of the Union Pacific at Portland.

Miss Margaret Baird has returned from an extended visit in Des Moines.

The Patriarchs will give a dance next Wednesday evening.

Miss Alexander of Omaha was the guest of Mrs. S. H. Burnham this week.

Miss Lehman, of Syracuse, who has been spending a few days in the city returned to her home Monday.

A. J. Cornish is in Sioux City.

Mrs. J. Morrill and Frank Morrill have gone to Colorado Springs.

M. E. Turrel left Monday for Celeste, Texas.

Miss Rachael Brock is visiting Miss Katharine Barker in Omaha.

Mrs. Edward Baum, of Omaha, was in the city this week.

Miss Mae Burr spent Wednesday in Omaha.

The ladies of the Matinee Musicale met at the Curtice music hall on Monday last and listened to a finely rendered program as follows:

A Scarlatti	1659-1725	Miss Hoover
Pastoral in E Minor		Miss Stoddard
Biographical Sketch	Never More	Mrs. Sanderson
Handel	1685-1759
Biography
Largo for violin		Mrs. Hagenow
Trio from Jephtha	Smiling Dawn	Miss Richardson
Mrs. Butler, Mrs. D. A. Campbell.

The biographical sketches by Miss Stoddard were comprehensive and bright and the musical numbers were highly creditable. Mrs. Raymond will commence her chorus work at the next meeting which will be November 19th. The afternoon will be devoted to a Hayden program.

Miss A. Jeline Shelden, of Nebraska City, who was the guest in this city of Miss Henrietta Hawley, returned to her home Wednesday.

Ports Wilson left Monday for Goodland, Ind., where he was called by a telegram announcing the sudden death of his brother.

Ned Keating, of Chicago, was in the city Wednesday.

Misses Quick, of Des Moines, Ia., Mame Carson, Messrs. Will Clark and Howe occupied a box at "Friends" Monday evening.

The members of the Cracker and Cheese club spent Tuesday afternoon with Miss Nellie White. Those present were Mrs. Chas. Burr, Mrs. Beman Dawes, Misses Lila Alexander, of Omaha; Mary Dawes, of Marietta, Ohio; Quick of Des Moines, Ia; Mame Carson, Rose Carson, Fay Marshall, Jeanette Wilson, Rachael Brock, Mae Burr, Olive Latta and Hallie Hooper.

Mrs. Colin L. Hooper and daughter, Fanchon, have returned from an extended eastern trip.

Dan Baum and Ward Clarke, of Omaha, spent Sunday with Frank Hooper.

The following young ladies will be entertained this afternoon by Miss Sallie Berkson at her home on R and Fourteenth streets: Misses Clara Leese, Frankie Burleigh, Helen Dorothy, Bernice Merrill, Sue Bartram, Bertha DuTeil and Jessie Greedy.

John Dorgan has returned from a week's hunt in the western part of the state.

IN OMAHA.

On Tuesday Miss Katharine Barker entertained at cards in honor of her guest, Miss Brock, of Lincoln, and of the Misses Welch of St. Paul.

Miss Pugsley of Chicago is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. S. S. Curtiss.

Lieut. Hines, Lieut. Powell and Lieut. Bookmiller will leave on Monday for Bloomington, Ills., to attend the wedding of Lieutenant Prince to Miss Rinehart. Lieut. and Mrs. Prince will be at home on Mondays after December 14th at Fort Omaha.

Mrs. Wilhelm spent a few days of this week at Lincoln.

Mrs. Baum has returned from a short visit to Lincoln.

Mrs. Herbert of New York is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Lemist.

Mrs. Joseph Garneau, Miss Nash and Mr. Pierre Garneau went to St. Louis this week to attend the marriage of Miss Garneau to Mr. Weld, which will take place on Wednesday.

Miss Doak of Nashville, Tenn., is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. John L. Webster.

Last Saturday evening Major and Mrs. Worth entertained at dinner, Dr. and Mrs. Tilton, Miss Tilton, Miss Balcombe and Mr. Seay.

The Misses Nash are contemplating a visit to San Antonio.

The Debutante Cooking club gave a cotillon on Wednesday evening at the residence of Miss Webster in honor of Miss Jentie Yates. The favors were unique and dainty in the extreme, the one that attracted the greatest attention being diminutive hand painted cook books containing a recipe from every member of the club. The german was led by Mrs. Augustus Kountze, and those who danced were: Misses Webster, Dandy, Doak, Burns, the Misses Nash, the Misses Yates, McKenna, Helen Smith, Colpetzer, Cady, Palmer, Brown, Kountze; Messrs. Dean, Crofoot, George Mercer, Captain Crowder, Wells, McArthur, Hines, Penn, Baldrige, Lyman, Cudaly, John Patrick, Garneau, Battin, Palmer.

Courier Coupon.

NOVEMBER 10, 1894.

I vote for.....

Name of voter.....

$500 CASH CONTEST This coupon entitles the voter to one vote in the $500 cash contest which closes December 24th, 1894. The person receiving the highest number of votes will receive $250, the person receiving the next highest, $150; and the person receiving the next highest, $100.

Latest sheet music at Crancer's, 212 So. 11th.

The Globe Clothing House, 10th & O Streets.